

PERCEPTION

WINTER 2011

[BLIND]

Mark ADAMANY

{ By Brittany Elrick }

Mark J. Adamany was born and raised in Rockford, Illinois and has owned Adamany Art & Design, a mural/fine arts and graphic design studio located in Rockford, for over 16 years.

Adamany has been making strong statements through his works of art for years. Both a trained visual artist with paint as well as on the computer, Mark has become well known in the Northern Illinois area over the years. "I have always felt that the 'fine arts' and 'graphic arts' were synonymous in many ways," Mark says. Adamany helps clients create their atmosphere in more ways than one; he not only paints interior and exterior murals for them, but often develops their identity and other print-related media as well.

Mark says of his work, "I have always had a strong desire to create. As we only capture what is inside of us, but to create an identifiable 'image' of sorts for the world may come in contact with us. This comes, this light within us, we built a visual world and perceived ourselves. To me, art is a representation. This experience came to light as I discovered that a simple step in the world would be a worthy source of subject matter. The more people we placed with both these expressions of content and the emotion brought me at the source, and I had caught myself these emotions in my work."

For more information please visit www.adamanyart.com

101

[PERCEPTION]

PERCEPTION

WINTER 2011

|BLIND|

BLIND

Mark

ADAMANY

[By Brittany Elrick]

Mark J. Adamany was born and raised in Rockford, Illinois and has owned Adamany Art & Design, a mural/fine arts and graphic design studio located in Rockford, for over 16 years.

Adamany has been making strong statements through his works of art for years. Both a trained visual artist with paint as well as on the computer, Mark has become well known in the Northern Illinois area over the years. "I have always felt that the 'fine arts' and 'graphic arts' were synonymous in many ways," Mark says. Adamany helps clients create their atmosphere in three ways than one; he not only paints interior and exterior murals for them, but often develops their identity and other print-related media as well.

Mark says of his work, "I have always had a strong desire to create. In my early career, what is inside of me, but to create an identifiable 'image' of sorts for the client may come to mind was my art. This came into light when he was both a visual artist and performing musician. To me, art is representation. This experience came to light as I discovered that a single step out into the world revealed a wealth of stories of subject matter to the many people and places with both their expression of emotion and the emotions brought to me as the viewer. And I had caught sight of these emotions in my work."

For more information please visit www.adamany.com

1081

|PERCEPTION|